(b) if so, what was the total export growth recorded during 2001;

(c) whether other major economies recorded a negative growth in exports; and

(d) if so, what efforts are being made to improve the export growth further?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY (SHRI RAJIV PRATAP RUDI): (a) to (c) Yes Sir, as compared to most Asian countries, except China, India is the only one to record a positive growth in export during 2001, as per the WTO Annual Report, 2002. Exports of India's merchandise goods have registered a growth of 4% in 2001 whereas Asia as a whole registered a negative growth rate (-) 9%. The major economies of North America, Japan and EU also witnessed deterioration in export performance at (-) 6% (-) 16% & (-) 1% respectively during 2001.

(d) Based on the Medium Term Export Strategy announced by the Department of Commerce and the action plans prepared by the various Export Promotion Councils/Commodity Boards, specific product and market related strategies are implemented. In the Exim Policy 2002—07, a number of measures have been announced to promote exports which include additional features for Special Economic Zones, a scheme to reimburse certain admissible expenses for export of certain agricultural products, development of clusters to help small scale exports, additional support for electronic hardware exports, further reduction in transaction costs, etc.

FDI in IT Sector
